Audition Requirements 1st - 4th semester

I. Main audition

The assessment criteria are artistic imagination, sense of style, technical ability and a choice of the degree of difficulty of the examination works that corresponds to the candidate's own level of development. The examination board may stop the performance of a work. It has the right to comprehensively examine the previous musical knowledge of the applicant. Unless otherwise stated, the duration of the Main audition is usually 10 to 30 minutes, depending on the degree programme.

1. Pre-selection round (submitted video)

- Before playing, the applicant must introduce themselves in German (e.g. name, place of birth, year of birth, previous musical education) and briefly explain why they would like to study piano in Leipzig (at least 1 minute)
- The works to be played are parts of the entrance examination programme listed under 2. of the applicant's choice (at least 10 minutes)

The video recording must not be older than 2 months at the start of the application period. Mobile phone video recordings are sufficient if the audio quality is good enough. The video must show the face, upper body and hands of the applicant, filling the screen as far as possible (recordings from very far away will not be accepted).

A description must be included with the video stating the name of the work and its start-time in the video (e.g. 0:00 Introduction; 1:35 Bach, Partita No. 1 in B-flat major BWV 825 - Allemande; 6:30 Beethoven Piano Sonata Op. 10 No. 3 in D major - 1st movement etc.).

2. Main audition

Candidates must prepare five works:

- A work of the Baroque period
- A complete sonata or a complete set of variations from the Classical period (including Franz Schubert)
- A work of the Romantic period
- A work of the 20th/21st century
- A virtuoso étude

The programme must be played from memory (a contemporary work can be played with sheet music).

II. Audition in additional subjects

An examination in further subjects may be waived if the candidate has not passed the Main audition.

1. Harmony and counterpoint (only for the first semester)

- Knowledge of chords in their various forms as well as major, minor and modal scales
  - Complementing a melody with a second voice (upper or lower voice)
  - Harmonic analysis of an easy movement from the 18th or 19th century
  - Continuing the beginning of a melody
- (Duration: approx. 15 minutes)
